Las Vecinas Board Plans Benefit Feed

By MARY and JACK WEBB

At their first regular meeting of the new year, members of the Las Vecinas board met at the home of Mrs. Clayton Geiger, 300 Paseo de Gracia. Topping the agenda of board business was the annual benefit breakfast which will be held on Oct. 18 at El Estero Park. The September membership drive was also discussed. This drive will be larger and more intensive than any heretofore attempted, since Las Vecinas plans on just one membership drive this year instead of its regular two a year as previously done.

More honors for Riviera neighbors came recently when Mrs. Carlton Paul, 183 Via los Miradores, was elected national vice-president of Scripps College Alumnae Association. She will serve for a two-year period, acting as coordinator of all alumnae chapters of Scripps throughout the country. Mrs. Paul has been active in the Long Beach chapter of the association, which chapter includes alumnae residing in the South Bay and Riviera area.

Into their new and much larger home at 100 Via Estrella moved the Edwin Gages together with their four children: Mary Ellen, 13; Susan, 11; Teddy, 9 and Janet Lynn, 8 months. The new home is replete with a living room, dining room, three bedrooms, 1 1/2 baths, fireplace, double garage and other little lovelies that make a house a home. In addition they report that their new home is built so that additional rooms may be added easily when the need arises. The Gages formerly lived at 220 Paseo de Granada.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bullington, 139 Calle de Andalucía, on Aug. 29 at Hawthorne Hospital was a son whom they have named Brett T. Brett weighed 8 lbs. 9 oz. He arrived home with his mother on Tuesday, Sept. 1, where they joined father and older brothers Barry and John and sister Margaret, Mrs. Beth Farrarys, friend of the mother, visited with the Bullingtons for three weeks, assisting them through the crucial time. She left for her home in Brownsville, Tex. last Saturday night via American Airlines.

We all dream of such a vacation, few of us ever make one so wonderful. It remained for Myriam Ray and Barbara Wallace, 125 Via Colusa, to make a fact of most folks' fancy. As a crew member of the yacht Atorrante, Ray Wallace was in the transoceanic race to Honolulu, recently completed. After a crossing of some 14 days, the Atorrante reached Honolulu, placing fifth in its class (Class B). Wife Barbara came over to Honolulu aboard the Lurline, and managed to reach there on the morning of July 18. That evening the Atorrante arrived and Barbara was on hand to greet hubby. The Wallaces stayed in Honolulu a week, taking in the happy presentation dinner and other festivities and visiting with friends whom they had known when they lived there a few years ago. Ray incidentally was promotion manager of the Honolulu Advertiser at the time and the couple lived out in Laie. Well... back to the dream vacation. Their next chore was to deliver the yacht back to the states and in that capacity they flew to the island of Maui to pick up the yacht. Ray and Barbara then cruised all the Hawaiian islands for two weeks, afterwards being joined by crew members Mr. and Mrs. Carl Stewart of Westchester. With Ray as skipper, the Stewart's and two boys as crew, and Barbara as chief cook and bottle washer, the Atorrante headed eastward to the states.

They left the islands Aug. 7, and after 22 days of wonderful sailing, little marred by bad weather, they arrived back in the states, touching at the Santa Barbara channel. Due to thick fog, Ray decided to put in at Santa Barbara where the yacht club promptly showed them a wonderful evening. Next day, Aug. 31, they powered into San Pedro and delivered the yacht. Now, I ask you, isn't that just the kind of vacation most of us earthbounds wish for, dream for and never see except through the courtesy of a Kilpatrick travelogue. We're glad for you, Wallaces; we know you'll treasure that wonderful trip always.

Children all over the Riviera are readying their uniforms, preparing to return to Marymount of Palos Verdes for the fall semester. Bonnie Baldwin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Baldwin, 139 Paseo de Granada, returns to Marymount for her second year, this time as a fourth grader. Other returnees include Jack and Jill Webb, 145 Calle de Andalucía, who enter their second grade this year. Registered to attend Marymount are Patty Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Scott, 146 Calle de Andalucía; Josephine Puetz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Al Puetz, 520 Paseo de las Estrellas; Judy Wurtz, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. R. M. Wurtz, M. D., 330 Via Colusa; Edward Collins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Collins, 440 Palos Verdes Blvd. and Edward Dale Cahill.

Young Gary Greer, 6, son of Jim and Marge Greer, took his first long trip sans parents over last Labor Day week-end. Together with his uncle Richard, who attends UCLA in Westwood, young Gary traveled clear into the next state, namely, Arizona, where in Phoenix he visited his grandparents who live there. And from all accounts, Master Greer pe-formed like a seasoned traveler, taking it all with polish and aplomb.

There's joy at the home of the R. J. Owens, 205 Calle Mayor. Their fourth month old Colie, Goldie, who had wandered off in company with small children, returned home after a prolonged absence. The Owens were quite concerned, since pet Goldie was in a series of dis-temper shots, and went as far as placing ads in a local newspaper. (The Owens, not Goldie). Daughter Patty, 12 and Timmy 6 1/2, having been plunged to the depths by Goldie's absence, were quickly restored to normal buoyancy by their pet's return.

To La Canada for a four-day visit with former Riviera Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Smith Jr., went Mrs. John Reed, 138 Via Loma. Together with sons Larry and Steve, The Smiths purchased their new home in La Canada recently, and left Riviera about two months ago.

Mrs. Jim Jones, 251 Calle de Andalucía, together with child, Tom and Ann Marie, is home from a ten-week trip to New York, where they visited relatives in Syracuse. Mrs. Jones stopped for a week in Michigan enroute to New York to visit Mr. Jones' relatives. She reports that her itinerary included side trips to Canada, where she visited the Shrine of Our Lady of the Cape at Three Rivers; Shrine of St. Joseph at Montreal and the Shrine of St. Anne de Beauport in Quebec. They returned by railroad to Riviera on Sept. 2.

On Sunday, Aug. 30, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will Zens, 187 Via los Miradores, their eldest daughter, Patty, celebrated her seventh birthday with a party for her friends. Helping her to celebrate were seven little girl friends and her sister, Joanne Zens. Guests included Dolan Key, Anne Paul, Gee Gee Paul, Carol Kendall, Nancy Graves, Mary Wermuth and Jill Webb. Prizes for the many games played during the afternoon were awarded to Anne Paul, Nancy Graves, Mary Wermuth and Jill Webb. Refreshments in the party helped satisfy the inner little girl. Cake, ice cream and root beer were the pieces de resistance.

Covering the campus news as it pertains to teenager Rivierans, we note many of them college bound. Packing their suitcases or otherwise stirring themselves as study approaches, Lois Jones, 251 Calle de Andalucía and Jim O'Hara, 236 Via Buena Ventura, who will call El Camino their campus for their freshman semester. Off to Stanford as a bright young freshman is Betty Shaw of 220 Via Linda Vista. Vonnie Griffin, 234 Paseo de las Delicias, is to freshman at El Camino also, as is David Forcier, 143 Via la Circula.

Many are the sophomores from Riviera. Ellen Forcier, 143 Via la Circula, is bound for El Camino, while her twin, Edgar, ties himself to Occidental for his second year of college. Marjo Strobel, 130 Calle de Andalucía, is another for El Camino. Dayle Denham, 341 Paseo de Gracia, goes back to Stanford for her second year, while Ellen Brandsma, 624 Calle Miramar, switches from Occidental to USC for her sophomore term. Nancy Ruth Miller, 155 Via los Miradores, and Shirley Parrish, both are sophomoring it at Redlands University, as nice a little campus as the nation has to offer.

May we say for all us Rivierans that have passed the college milestone that we're proud we show so much brains!
